"Los pesticidas son los responsables de la muerte de 200.000 personas cada año": ONU

Medio Ambiente 8 Mar 2017 - 12:03 PM

Por: Tatiana Pardo @Tatipardo2

El 99% de las muertes corresponden a países en desarrollo. En un reciente informe, la entidad hace severas críticas a la industria que fabrica estos productos y desmiente algunos mitos sobre la necesidad de usar plaguicidas para aumentar la producción agrícola.
